BOOM VOYAGE 2010!

Alas, my friends, another amazing year is in the books, so, of course, there's gotta be an amazing New Year's editorial in the pages of these books. See what I did there?

It's kind of hard to believe that 2010 has already taken a bow, but it was indeed one heck of a show. Here at the good ship BOOM!, we were delighted to be able to deliver more of what you, the fabulous readers, have come to expect from us on a regular basis. No, Stan Lee, didn't create any brand-new Disney characters, but we did work our tails off to produce the highest quality, outstandingly entertaining, family-friendly comic bookery possible — moreso in 2010 than ever before.

One of my personal highlights was being able to bring one of the biggest comic book stars of all time back to the forefront where he belongs, in the pages of WALT DISNEY'S COMICS and the much-anticipated return of his own solo title, MICKEY MOUSE AND FRIENDS!

Meanwhile, in the "characters without pants" category, we also had a huge year featuring "DuckTales" stories in UNCLE SCROOGE. And how could we forget the breakout hit that is the DARKWING DUCK ongoing series?! Both of these books were the foundation for igniting the Disney Afternoon Revolution, whose success has allowed us to welcome CHIP 'N' DALE RESCUE RANGERS as the newest exciting addition to our family of titles.

And in all of this, I'd be remiss not to mention you, the readership. Some of our favorite moments of 2010 have come from your letters, your fan art, and connecting with hundreds of you at conventions all over the country, all year long. Without your passion for these characters, the book you hold in your hands simply wouldn't exist!

As great as 2010 was, however, I have to be honest: it was only a warm-up for 2011. This month, we begin a year-long celebration of 70 years of WALT DISNEY'S COMICS. What can you expect from a year-long party, you may wonder? Well, let me just say this: stick with us for an even more amazing year of comics...and expect the unexpected!
